Dear Mr Jones

Freedom of Information Act 2000
Public Health Wales
Case Reference Number: IC-83523-F5L1

Please find attached a decision notice relating to your complaint about a request for information that you submitted to the above public authority.

Your complaint has been considered by the Commissioner and the decision notice sets out the reasons for the decision. If you disagree with the decision notice, you have the right to appeal to the First-tier Tribunal (Information Rights).

The Commissioner will publish this decision on the ICO website, but will remove all names and addresses of complainants. If the public authority also chooses to reproduce this decision notice, then the Commissioner expects similar steps to be taken.

You should write to us if Public Health Wales fails to comply with any steps specified by the Commissioner in the decision notice. It is important to note that our power to commence legal proceedings in this situation is discretionary and although we will look into the matter, formal action will not be appropriate in all cases.

Yours sincerely,

Catherine Dickenson
Senior Case Officer
